

SHE LOVES F1 SAMPLE CHART READING

Sun in Aries 15° (2nd House)

The Sun represents your will, purpose, vitality, and outward-shining creative energy.

You are autonomous and have a fear of commitment but at the same time can be very loyal and dependable with those worth it. You are often detached and not at all emotional. You are positive and always happy. You usually thrive when fascinated by something. Your taste in love seems out of the ordinary.

Your main purpose in life is to make the world a better place. You have deep emotions and are individualistic. People will always think of you as different and a little bit unusual. You like to be surprised and to contribute to the greater good. It's essential for you to not allow your instincts to guide you because you would end up taking unnecessary risks.

What works for you is unleashing your revolutionary mind and unlocking your full potential.

You will have an easy life because you can predict what will happen next. You can see into the future like no one else, and this makes you more confident. But you are only human, so you have defects, too: for example, giving yourself too much importance and being inflexible. Because you can refuse to make compromises, your personal relationships might suffer as a result.

You live at a fast pace, questioning why others can't keep up with you. But not taking others' ideas into consideration can bring you only negativity. You have to be more patient with what others think and listen more.

Unpredictable, you are also very keen to have autonomy. This is why you might not get involved with others too often. You can even grow to be phobic of involvement, whether it is about your job or your romantic relationships. You have self-confidence and think less of those who have a different opinion than yours, live differently or don't have as much money as you.

You are sure about your intellectual abilities and when it comes to your emotions, you are romantic and an idealist. While it's important that others don't expect you to be too generous, you will surely make your friends feel they are the most important people on Earth.

Noble and impressive, you have an aristocratic air that will make others respect you. You tend to judge quickly, just as you live your life. It's very likely you will make good money and gain recognition in life.

Your interest in others will help you interact well with anyone, no matter if it is a business or a camaraderie relationship. After all, you are very sociable and popular. Your magnetism will make anyone think you can lead large groups of people without struggling.

You'd make a great salesperson. While you can seem focused on what's designed to benefit you, you will be interested in many other things. When you need to reach a conclusion, you will accurately analyze situations and people.

You are the type of person who doesn't stay in one place for too long. Adventurous and always ready to take risks or face new challenges, you won't mind getting involved in big projects. Having a good family and a proper education will help you seem even more aristocratic and noble than you actually are. And you will take advantage of this image. Individualists, you believe in no one else but yourself; maybe also in those who have the same financial status as you.

You feel safe only when you're alone. You need your independence, not to just spend time apart from your partner. You don't like tradition and want everything in your life to be unique.

Your partner needs to understand there are parts of you they will never get to know. You may seem distant with your romantic partner, but it's not like that; you are just being individualistic. Too many emotions can confuse you. But you will continue to be loyal no matter how perplexed.

You have a special magnetism and are very sociable. You are pleasant and don't hold back on your opinions. You like everything that's progressive and modern, not being afraid to play your part in innovation. But you are not the most flexible person in the world. While you are very good at dealing with others, you don't respect those who seem unable to make a decent living. You're independent, sometimes anxious and moody. You are adventurous and energetic. Everything new causes you to be curious and passionate. You make decisions easily, without thinking too much.

Strengths: Enthusiastic, involved and warm

Potential area(s) for growth: Impulsive, stubborn and impatient

Advice: Be careful with whom you are being generous

Sun in the Second House

You will focus almost all of your energy on making money and accumulating as many possessions as possible. You surely are very preoccupied with wealth and want the power associated with being rich because this makes you feel secure and important.

It's essential for you to take care of as many financial activities as possible as you're really talented when it comes to the material side of life and can be really successful with business. You will become financially independent from a very young age, but are not the type to save money as you really take pleasure in everything life has to offer and love high-quality things.

You are very proud of how much money you've managed to make and need to feel financially secure. You're always keeping your word and don't make empty promises, but the fact that you identify yourself with your possessions can't be too beneficial for you.

It's important for you to appreciate the value of people and relationships, not only the one of wealth. You should be proud of family and friends because dreaming only of materials can really distort your view on life.

You can also be egotistical, too self-confident and have many other personality issues that make others turn against you. Your ego can influence you to argue with your family all the time. Because the 2nd house is mostly about wealth, you will mainly focus on obtaining financial security and materialistic pleasures.

You want to be part of a clan and to lead, but not by being authoritative as your nature is optimistic, generous and possessive. The main purpose in life for you should be appreciating true value and putting your talent to work. You function best when having a steady rhythm of development and have the opportunity to work hard for long-lasting and highly appreciated results.

As soon as you've found a profession to help you become better as a human being, you become more than happy to pursue it. Because you're sensual and love everything that's beautiful, you feel perfectly in nature and when doing what brings you pleasure. There's a risk for you to identify yourself with possessions and bank accounts, but at least naturalness and simplicity dominates your existence. You need to feel secure and are very generous with anyone who happens to be in your life.

Kind and open, you should learn how to exploit these traits more and to be less obsessed with money because giving your everything for wealth only can be a very dangerous thing. It's challenging for you to use your talents and not think of how much you're getting from this.

But if mature and wise enough, you can focus only on how to be more productive and at the same time giving. This position makes you courageous, noble and strong. When you are pursuing a goal, you usually manage to attain it, no matter how much others have opposed you. Proud and stubborn!

Be careful not to become too materialistic. Good leaders, it's important you take some risks when required to because you have the tendency to overindulge and become complacent in a comfortable situation, refusing to expand your horizons. Giving too much importance to possessions is never healthy because other people value different things. The more you will determine what true value is, the more you will have a well-established identity that's conditioned by nothing and no one.

Strengths: Sensual, intuitive and witty

Challenges: Possessive and somewhat controlling

Advice: Don't let your pride cloud your judgment

Strong Aspects

Sun conjunct Mercury

This is the best of all aspects for communication. Interacting with others is most important to you as it stimulates your need to share ideas. With such an active mind, however, you may become easily distracted when listening to others, either butting in or letting your mind wander. You are probably a better talker than a listener.

Mercury rules communication, thinking patterns, rationality, and reasoning. Also primary and secondary education, your neighborhood, siblings, cousins, short-distance transport, news, and information. Mercury is fast, lively, adaptable, variable, unemotional and curious.

Self-expression is a really strong point for you. Conveying a message or concept with flair makes you a great communicator. Others will enjoy listening to you and watching you talk, as you use gestures and facial expressions to help get your message across. You should be comfortable with public speaking and would make a great salesperson, actor or politician. Your chameleon-like ability enhances your talent for acting or choosing a particular persona depending on the situation.

Your mental and manual dexterity is matched by a natural curiosity. This gives ability with arts and crafts, as well as intricate or precise machinery, from watches to engines. Studies should come easy, like reading anything from novels to detailed instructions. There may be a talent for writing stories and you may be good at interpreting symbols, font design or calligraphy.

You may have to contend with nervous ailments or an inability to relax with this aspect.

Sun conjunct Venus

This aspect is the personification of love, peace, and beauty. You are an affectionate and refined person with a rich social life who loves entertaining and amusements. You are a lover, not a fighter, and dislike threatening or ugly people and environments. People are attracted to you because of your genuine lovely nature.

Shopping should be an enjoyable experience because of your good fashion sense and eye for a bargain. You also have good money handling skills and should enjoy a life of relative comfort if not wealth. Investment in art, jewelry, and cash should turn a profit. Artistic and creative talent can shine through music, dance, art, fashion, and poetry.

Beauty comes not only on the outside but also inside as compassion, sympathy, and a strong belief in unity and unconditional love. You appreciate beauty, so your personal appearance and that of your home and loved ones are important. You also appreciate the importance of good food, exercise, and a healthy diet.

Your charming and charismatic nature means you can easily make friends and can even win over enemies. Your ideal partner should know how to romance and indulge you but above all truly love you.

Your desire for peace and harmony together with your soft nature means you can sometimes compromise too much to keep the peace. You could also have a tendency to sugarcoat unpleasant realities.

Sun sextile Mars

You have a playful and youthful appearance. You are strong and fit so exercise and competitive sport should appeal to you. You do work well with groups of people, but you also have the drive and initiative to work alone so that you would do equally as well in individual sports.

You should enjoy good health because of your muscle strength, high physical activity, and good recuperative properties. You should also enjoy a strong libido and be physically and sexually attractive.

You should be rather popular as you are direct in your expression, self-assertive, and can be counted on to back up your friends. This fighting quality can make you provocative, and you could turn your hand to some sort of political activism or find a career in the military.

Although I say you may be provocative, you will rarely provoke aggressive responses in others because of your honesty and lack of pretension. But you are a good fighter and brave, you will stand up for just causes and of course, come to the aid of family and friends.

You should enjoy harmonious relationships because you are a sincere, warm, and charming person. Making new friends should be no problem for you.

Sun square Saturn

This represents tests and challenges that have to be overcome to get ahead in life. This aspect may cause difficulties early in life with self-esteem as a result of criticism from people, especially authority figures like your father. You may be too hard on yourself. As a result, you may be overly self-critical and suffer from poor self-esteem. If you judge yourself too harshly, other people will do the same, reinforcing this negativity.

Early hard lessons made you grow up quickly and get better at the things you struggled with. Like most Saturn aspects, this one gets better with age. You may have been a late bloomer, but you strive with determination and perseverance to overcome any setbacks and become a master of self-discipline, achievement, and responsibility.

Sun square Neptune

This aspect creates many battles that you must overcome in order to feel strong and confident about yourself. Because you are such a sensitive and caring person, it is easy for you to fall victim to injustices. Defeats and disappointments will further erode your self-esteem and confidence. Without taking corrective action, you could become very confused, alienated, paranoid, or dependent on drugs or alcohol.

You will actually be forced to deal with your weak spots from an early age. Because of your insecurities and gullibility, stronger people will bully you or try to deceive you. Others may have trouble trusting you or they may feel you are up to no good. This is not the case, but when young you can give this perception of guilt. It is like you wear a label around your neck saying "pick on me" or "I'm guilty".

Hesitation, misinterpretation, and false accusations can make you more susceptible to discrimination, controversy, and scandal. To rectify these problems you must go into battle. At some stage, you will be backed into a corner and be forced to stand up for yourself and fight. This is key to strengthening your self-image and improving your confidence.

Taking up the fight and battling against the odds will probably end up being a lifestyle for you. There is much you can do because you are deeply affected by the plight of the downtrodden. You may fight for just causes or against censorship, discrimination in all its forms, drugs, or crime. You may be subject to betrayal and victimization, so you are well equipped to help the underdogs of the world.

Becoming so involved in social causes or charitable organizations means you will have to confront many of your own fears and phobias and deal with delusion, deception, subversion, and misrepresentation. Maintaining your own strong set of morals and ideals will go a long way to helping you win your battles.

Improving your inner strength and removing self-doubt are also important to your physical health. You may be more susceptible to infection and contamination and may experience misdiagnosis, infection, neurosis, and general weakness. Extra care is required around water, gases, poisons, and taking medication or recreational drugs and alcohol.

Another trick for improving your self-image is using mirrors and cameras. Although others may find you strange or you may become involved in controversies and scandals, this actually adds to your mysterious appeal. You are alluring and mesmerizing and people will want to know your story.

You can excel in creative and entertainment careers such as music, literature, poetry, and the stage and screen. Standing up for others can lead to a career in social or charity work, politics, or some form of activism.

Moon in Aries 5° (2nd House)

The moon represents your emotional responses, unconscious pre-disposition, and self-image. Your moon sign shows how you express yourself when you're at home, at ease, and comfortable.

You are inclined to impatience, independence, and impulsiveness. You have a high energy level. You have a strong competitive streak, which, together with your “attack first” attitude, may conceal subtle feelings of insecurity. Your emotions are keenly felt, direct, and spontaneous. You may have to guard against a quick temper or a tendency toward a too hasty reaction to situations rather than a more carefully reasoned approach. You are most comfortable thinking of yourself as strongly independent with great physical daring and courage.

You are a born leader who feels the need to be at the forefront of any project, to organize and instill a sense of direction in others. You have a very fiery temper, a combative spirit, and volcanic drive that will melt even the strongest obstacles apart.

You are both sensitive, affectionate, and loving when you deem someone to be worth your attention, but you have a very bad temper, a craving for challenges and risky endeavors, and an insatiable urge to be in control.

You have an impulsive and sort of immediate personality and life doesn't always cater to your desires. You may want something to be accomplished, but it doesn't always go your way, and obstacles could appear on the way. When this happens and a failure is unavoidable, you can become gloomy, moody, and fall into a state of depression.

You have a joyful attitude and are very loving. You're a high-spirited adventurer who takes risks. Being slow and naive is equivalent to being a dead man walking, and you don't have too much patience for these people.

You are likely to have an innate need to do things on your own. Your dynamism is your best asset and gives you much energy to draw upon. You will feel at your best when in charge of your own life, and in some way doing your own thing.

As a natural pioneer, you can see the opportunity present in seed-potentials, and will bring much creative energy to get things off the ground. Your sense of justice and idealism means you will fight for what you feel to be fair, and in many ways your innate innocence means you can succeed through sheer courage and purity of heart. Your courage can be an inspiration to others, and you do best in life when you direct your considerable energies toward the achievement of worthwhile causes bigger than just yourself.

Soulmate: Someone who can challenge and keep you interested;

Life lesson: Temper yourself and be more observant of others' emotions.

Strengths: Imaginative, confident

Potential issues: stubborn, arrogant

F1 Drivers who have this placement: Charles Leclerc

Moon in the Second House

When the emotional and fragile Moon is in the 2nd House, you can't feel emotionally secure until you're certain that your financial future is stable. You can spend a lot of money on making gifts to those you love the most. It can be normal for you to put other people's needs above your own, which is not necessarily the healthiest thing to do.

You are very materialistic and need financial security more than anything. Your emotional happiness is strongly related to how stable your future seems. The more you're surrounded by high-quality possessions and comfort, the more secure and happy you get to feel.

You may have felt less confident as a child, constantly thinking you didn't have enough toys or possessions to be happy. You are reserved and deep. You would do a great job putting all of your thoughts and impressions into art pieces and being really appreciated as a person of culture. You are eloquent and smart, but you simply don't want to express yourself because you're focusing on something else.

Preferring to talk without subtext and always meaning what you're saying, you never mean to hurt anyone, but you do because honesty often bothers people. When sexually frustrated, you may be cold and very mean with your partner.

You are good at care taking, cooking and even nursing. No matter what you do for a living, expect yourself to be emotional when it comes to money. Your need for security has you worrying about money all the time. However, there are still moments when you can give everything in your pockets, especially when dealing with some emotional problems. You strongly hold on to those you love because you need to be constantly admired and offered love in order for you to see how much you're worth.

When it comes to emotions, you don't respond as fast and accurately as others because you're deliberately not expressing yourself. It's important for you to remember life isn't all about money and that possessions don't determine how much a human being is worth. Keeping this in mind could help you through the most difficult times in your life, and you shouldn't adopt a mood swing in tough moments, seeing the bigger picture instead.

You will want to make money in your profession and that your job may be something related to water or the public as you're very good at interacting with others. It's also possible you'll do something that has you taking care of people. Being disciplined and as practical as possible with your own money is a solution for you to live the good life.

Strengths: Generous, objective and resourceful

Challenges: Detachment and stubbornness

Advice: Be careful about hiding emotions in plain sight

Strong Aspects

Moon sextile Jupiter

You have an optimistic and cheerful nature. You may have a good sense of humor but the main reason for your popularity has more to do with the positive energy you share. This subconscious joviality lifts people up when they are down while not draining you. In other words, you have more than enough positive energy to go around.

You should enjoy friendly relationships and happy family life. Relationships with women, in particular, your mother and daughters, should be harmonious and continue to grow in warmth. You make a great parent and teach children so much just by setting a good example.

You may be adventurous while young and feel content and fulfilled when old. You are a happy-go-lucky person but do expect to be treated as well by others as you treat them. It is hard for you to say no to people who can sometimes be problematic. However, you have plenty of genuine friends and supporters to look after you in this way.

Making friends comes easy because you are naturally open about sharing your feelings. Generosity is a strong point and may account in part for your own good fortune in life. Your public popularity can be very useful in your chosen career and even lead to fame.

Moon square Uranus

You have an almost compulsive need for stimulation. This can lead to a very exciting life full of change and peculiar events. Other people should find you to be exciting but also challenging due to some eccentric behaviors and strongly independent nature.

You are subconsciously drawn to anything new and shiny and can be easily distracted due to your emotional compulsions. Even though you have your own unique and sometimes odd way of doing things, you are open-minded enough to experiment and quickly change your approach.

Your home and family can manifest the peculiarity and excitement of Uranus. Moving from one place to another is common with this aspect. If not, you, your partner or your children may stand out somehow. The Moon also represents the public, meaning that you stand out from the crowd in a notable way.

This changeable or erratic nature can make others think you are rebellious, disruptive or reckless. You quickly form emotional bonds but may have trouble maintaining long-term emotional commitments. If so, this could be due to emotional detachment by a parent, usually the mother, or your tendency to become easily bored due to a lack of emotional stimulation.

Whether male or female, your upbringing may have been unorthodox but allowed you the freedom to find your way in the world. You may nurture your children in ways others find strange. You struggle to balance emotional nurturing versus detachment and independence. Too much of one and not enough of the other will cause behavioral and relationship problems.

Even though you may not consciously intend to, you can shock and upset others with your odd behaviors and tendencies. Authority figures, in particular, may not appreciate your lack of respect for tradition. But you are just as likely to entertain and add excitement to the lives of others.

You can combine a humanistic and a scientific approach. Dispassionately viewing things can lead to inventive solutions to problems. Entertainment, psychology, or the sciences would provide a stimulating career for you. Being a homemaker would also allow you to express your unique talents and provide a stimulating environment to raise children.

Moon square Chiron

The square is a dynamic aspect in astrology. It creates tension and frustration. Squares force you to take action. While with a Moon conjunct Chiron aspect the energies of these celestial objects completely merge and they act as if they were one, here there is an intense and aggressive flow of energy.

Moon square Chiron in the natal chart suggests an intense clash of energy between the Moon and Chiron.

In early childhood, there were a lot of conflicts in your relationship with your mother. She was not ready emotionally to be a parent. You often experienced emotional crises, but there was no one to help you. You learned that there is no use in expressing your emotional needs.

Moon-Chiron people learned that no matter what they do, there is always something wrong with them. This became a subconscious belief, what follows you in your adult life, too, until you consciously overwrite it. You often feel that you are the scapegoat.

However, this is very painful. Humans run on emotions, and suppressing them causes a lot of damage. You have an inner need to overcome the tension. If you use this aspect to your advantage, you can learn how to be a very good parent, both to your inner child and real children.

If you don't work on this aspect, you can unconsciously repeat this behavioral pattern in the life of your children. Being aware of painful tendencies helps us evolve and teach our children better beliefs about the world.

Mercury in Aries 16° (2nd House)

Mercury represents communication and your logical spirit.

You will share your ideas and perspectives on the world even when you are not asked to. You are totally remarkable because of your direct and impulsive demeanor. You know how to best control your emotions, so they don't get in your way uselessly. Actually, your favorite past-time is engaging in interesting debates with men and winning against them.

You have an endless source of energy oozing from you, one that works for you, increasing your creativity and imagination, but also the devious and mischievous parts of your personality.

You are anything but patient and calm. You rush towards achieving your objectives, often overlooking the obstacles and difficulties on the path, making mistakes due to your brashness. However, this impetus and impulsive personality also give you the edge when in competition with others.

Most of the time, your playful and stubborn side will get out to the surface and take on everyone. Learning and accumulating knowledge is all good, but not when it turns into a boring routine. Reading books? No, sir, that is tedious and dull. How about going on an adventure, braving risks, learning from experience?

Now that's what we're talking about! You take opposition quite personally and will retort with fierce arguments. You are very swift and agile when it comes to solving a problem under pressure. You can come up with 10 ideas in a minute, each crazier than the last, and with each comes an opportunity to adapt and overcome the issues you are dealing with.

Communication and focus are some of the fields where you lack a little because of your impatience and impulsivity. Your confidence is a double-bladed sword, on the one hand inspiring others to try harder and to aspire for more, and on the other hand reflecting a conceited and arrogant attitude. You will share your ideas and perspectives on the world even when you are not asked to. Restless and spontaneous, as well as extremely impulsive, you just can't sit still for too long. Always running head-long into battle, ignoring the advice and rules of other people. Your relationships are bound to last for short amounts of time because you don't like to be held accountable or to take unnecessary responsibilities. Freedom and independence are where true life is!

Strengths: Confident and inspirational

Potential Areas for Growth: Restless and superficial

Soulmate: Someone who is spontaneous and idealistic

Life lesson: Don't take things so personally

F1 Drivers who have this placement: None

Mercury in the Second House

You are exceptionally adept at using words to portray a complex vision of the world, to present ideas in an expressive and suggestive manner. You aren't necessarily the smartest person in the room, but you do know how to best use your mind in order to adapt to new situations and make the most of your potential. You're a good communicator who finds it very easy to converse with others, to exchange ideas and to reach a consensus through debates and verbal mediation.

You can't help yourself from joining in on random conversations, on imposing your viewpoint with an iron will and going so far as to suggest even more profound ideas. You are going to have a brilliant future in domains that capitalize on these traits, creativity, spontaneity, imagination, and communication. Your interests are eclectic, diverse, and quite entertaining, but the downside is that you lose focus of what is most important, choosing to get involved in more than one activity. You are interested in absolutely everything, from fashion to painting, nuclear physics to evolutionary biology, morality, philosophy, apiculture, and silk-worms. There really isn't a limit to what you can achieve in terms of knowledge and cultural information. You like to know, that's it. Know what? Anything and everything.

You are well-above the rest of people when it comes to intellectual capacity, and even in how you use that intelligence to achieve your goals and ascend the social ladder.

You are pragmatic, reasonable and rational, and have very good communication skills. Your creativity and imagination imply that you might also be good in artistic fields like painting, singing, writing even. One thing is sure though, that you will never stop from cultivating your minds, learning everything there is to know about the world.

You should be careful, though, to prioritize your important responsibilities and obligations, and leave other secondary activities in the end. Things like having fun, reading a book, going to the theater, these are optional activities to spend time with. You might have problems in this regard, organizing your schedule and maintaining it to increase efficiency and productivity. It's a result of your dynamic and overly-curious nature. You want to try everything, and that sense of immediate gratification is really strong in your case. It's a given that you have to take a step back, relax and take another look at the whole picture, take care of yourself and try to self-develop. Ideally, you have to find a way to do everything with the least expenditure of effort.

You are keen on learning, maybe too keen at times, but it's good that you begin this process from an early age, building the foundation of a good personality until later on when you finally get to achieve your goals.

You are called the jack/jane of all trades, but master of one, and with good riddance as well because you pursue a lot of interests and passions, but don't get too far with any of them. You are talkative in the sense that you speak when spoken to but otherwise only say what is essential to be said.

One of the glaring flaws is a lack of focus and attention on their interests. Because you try to increase your knowledge in as little time as possible by pursuing multiple goals, you fail to complete even 1% of what you have envisioned. Instead, you are left with plenty of chaotic information about a wide range of topics which, although a sign of intelligence and curiosity, won't be of any significant aid in realistic terms.

You quickly make decisions when you have to, often spending very little time actually thinking about the options and consequences.

Strengths: Talented, pragmatic and charming

Challenges: Sarcastic and arrogant

Advice: Be careful what words you choose, not to offend people

Strong Aspects

Mercury conjunct Venus

You are a lovable, handsome, neat, refined, idealistic, and courteous person. You may have a tendency to be passive and submissive but this is a means by which you achieve peace in your life. Diplomacy is a strong point and you may often be called on to sort out problems between friends.

Communication is another strong point. This aspect brings intelligence, a quick mind, and psychic ability. It does not particularly point to any field of study or topic of debate. It is your actual style of communication that is important. You have the ability to communicate things in a loving way. This is often helped by a melodic, poetic, and relaxing voice.

This talent for communicating means you should be at ease in social situations. People will find you to be refined, elegant, and even mesmerizing. You have a good appreciation of art and creativity with strong pattern recognition. This aspect also gives skills in reading music, playing musical instruments, poetry, singing, and painting. At school, you were probably a visual learner but also an avid reader. You can see pictures in words and words in pictures.

As Mercury rules trade and Venus rules money, you could do well in business and enjoy buying and selling. This goes well with your talent as a negotiator. Other areas of interest may be teaching, journalism, writing, law, politics, art, or sociology. However, as mentioned earlier, your skill set enables you to succeed in any profession and earn honors and riches.

Mercury sextile Mars

You have a very sharp mind and tongue with a fighting spirit. Your intelligence and quick reflexes, both mentally and physically, make you a formidable opponent in any competitive field which rewards strong independent thought. Importantly, you don't just theorize but you act on your instincts with confidence. You can be very driven to succeed with a strong sense of purpose. A strong work ethic and initiative will earn you respect, especially from strong men.

You are a very active person and you actually need to be kept busy with useful and productive work. Although you can be very direct and sometimes even forceful, you enjoy socializing and other people will enjoy your stimulating company. A certain amount of tact and charisma come with this aspect, but at times your honesty and cutting remarks may offend. The truth does hurt sometimes but someone has to say it.

Your courage and self-belief can lead to risk-taking behavior. However, your rapid response time and strong intuition mean that you will most often land on your feet. Your love life benefits from your ability to arouse with your words and body language. You may enjoy flirting.

Venus in Aries 15° (2nd House)

You love to be in charge and to be able to express your passion as freely as you want. You are very dynamic and active, someone who always stands up to her principles, and who never takes back her words.

With a strong impetus and a fiery determination, you go forward with an indomitable will, topping all the competition and taking big steps towards achieving your objectives. You don't wait for things to come to you, even though you might have an advantage, given your feminine charms. Instead, your highly spirited personality and combative character demand immediate gratification.

Innovative and with the spirit of an initiator, you want to have a long-standing relationship to last throughout the ages. Your unending energy is so powerful that not many can stand face to face with you. You love to be in charge, to go after your chosen one, to cook up seduction plans, and to put them into practice with your overwhelming desire.

You are frank, direct, honest, and you don't beat around the bush. You won't find a more intense and passionate woman in the entire world than you. You like to compete, to challenge yourself to be better, and this takes you throughout many dynamic encounters most of the time. A lot of other women may not like you because you're so much better and put so much effort into everything you do.

You are very resolute, firm in your beliefs, and will try your hardest to get what you want. You want to be free, to live your life the way you want, without being restricted by the possessive drives of your partner. Nevertheless, you have a craving for affection, the sense that balance is essential in a relationship. You're looking for spiritual fulfillment, the kind that one receives in a loving bonding between two people.

You're the kind of person who takes the first step towards the achievement of your goals, and also the person who finds the most exciting opportunities, the most thrilling, and the ones filled with the most adrenaline.

Resolute and determined, you don't take shit from anybody, and you always take the reins of your own life, going forward to achieve your goals.

Strengths: Spirited and seductive

Potential area(s) for growth: Quick-tempered and possessive

Soulmate: Someone who is eccentric and independent

Life lesson: Don't allow things to get to a standstill when something can be done

F1 Drivers who have this placement: None

Venus in the Second House

You may appear driven by materialistic pursuits but can also empathize and react to matters of the heart, something less known about you. You really know how to appreciate beautiful and valuable things. You will probably have a collection at home, be it of art or stamps, but you can be sure you'll always surround yourself with beauty.

Many will see you as high maintenance because you're always elegant and looking to enjoy the finest wines or foods. Very materialistic, you want a lover to get you expensive gifts, but they can't say you're shallow or unable to love others. You just don't want to settle for less and appreciate only what's truly valuable, from friendships to pieces of furniture and clothes.

Your sociability, romanticism and artistic spirit will be expressed through efforts to make money, acquire possessions and gain a good position in society. It's very possible you'll decide on a very rich partner who can help you attain the comfort you're so much dreaming of.

It's very important for you to be surrounded by beautiful things and to feel financially secure. Having a few talents for business and the arts, it can be intriguing to watch your evolution when it comes to money. If you have any hobby, it's suggested you make a living out of it because it's very important for you to do what you really love in life. You need your loved ones to express all the affection and love they have in their heart for you.

Very good at finding value anywhere and also at putting it to good use, you would do a great job at trading antiques or other things that can be repaired and sold for a higher price. Usually generous and eager to make gifts, you expect something back from those you're giving presents to. You may be too obsessed to win your partner's admiration because all you want is to be praised and can't always receive admiration.

You are probably of two types: driven by the materialistic side of things OR only looking for value. Your desire to own and to have as many valuable possessions as possible will be present. You truly appreciate beauty and want to be in the most pleasant environments. That's why you will work hard to have a comfortable life and to afford all kinds of expensive things.

Your idea of love is associated with complete devotion and loyalty, and there's no other way around with you when it comes to this. You may be insistent on one side and tolerant on the other.

Because you can get very jealous and terrified that your partner may cheat on you, you need to somehow learn how to deal with this or your lovers may break up with you more often than others go to the gym. Love is all about being next to your partner and paying no attention to other people. That's why you want someone who doesn't mind belonging to you and who understands you find this feeling very important.

When you feel secure, it becomes your pleasure to make others enjoy stability. Falling in love can make you overprotective and caring, the provider who always makes your loved ones' wishes come true.

Try to become more open minded and no longer hold on too tightly to your old ideas. It's wrong to judge others who don't have the same morals as you because disregarding and thinking bad of people can be very unhealthy. Moreover, try to no longer give yourself completely when in love or to feel strongly attached to a person. Life sometimes needs change and for people to let go, regardless of the fact that the planet of love is ruling over your life.

Strengths: Extravagant, well-defined and sincere

Challenges: Bitter and obsessive

Advice: The calmer you are, the easier most things are

Strong Aspects

Venus sextile Mars

You have a vivacious, engaging and honest personality. You are socially popular and should be among the "in" crowd because of your beautiful appearance and alluring nature. There is nothing superficial about your beauty and friendliness. You have a zest for life and a strong desire to experience everything with intensity.

Your love life is where you experience this intensity the most. Your harmonious and peaceful nature means you should attract non-aggressive and genuine partners and friends. They must also be sexy and able to meet your strongly sensual desires.

You are a people person and would excel in any career where your suave and charismatic nature can have a positive influence on other people. Your playful and sporty nature together with creative talent makes you very versatile. The warm, fuzzy aura or glow around your face can be used to your advantage in self-promotion or the promotion of any cause you wish to fight for.

Venus square Saturn

This is one of the most challenging aspects of all. Two of the most important things in life are love and happiness, and these things seem even more important to you because they are more difficult to achieve than for other people. You will often feel like you are denied what you most want in life. This aspect has been associated with laziness, immorality, shamelessness, bad habits, perverted tastes, meanness, seduction, and sorrows in love.

Feelings of rejection, isolation, and loneliness can start at an early age. How you deal with this throughout life depends greatly on how much love you received from your parents, especially your father. Along with love, you will need encouragement and support to boost your self-esteem. If you were subject to criticism or abuse, then this aspect will be harsher in adulthood, leading to bouts of depression.

Although square aspects are very challenging, they do present ample opportunities to improve on your weaknesses. The constant challenges and lessons about self-worth and love mean that with age, you can achieve the long-term happiness you strive for.

The key to working through this aspect is self-love. If you let the criticisms and rejections take hold in your head, then these messages become reinforced. Erase that recording and replace it with positive messages such as "I am worthy of love" and things along that line.

Once you start to project a more positive self-image, then you will gain the confidence to make and maintain relationships. No longer will you hide your affections and miss out on opportunities for romance. No longer will you miss out on the feeling of being loved and valued.

Mars in Gemini 15° (5th House)

Mars represents the desire for action and physical energy.

You can't be tamed or put under chains so you often say exactly what you think, regardless of the consequences. You are a free-spirited and free-flowing individual who never sits still for too long in one place. You're an explorer who likes to wander freely, even though you might not like the many different places that you discover on the way.

Your mind is never static, so you're always transforming, finding new things to be enthusiastic about, going the extra way to further develop yourself. You are forever enthusiastic and shining with a pleasing smile plastered on her face. Always keen on trying new things and talking about the most interesting of subjects with those who want to listen, you use your mind in ways most can't even imagine.

You can use her wit and sarcasm to keep a distance and punch anyone who tries to insult or otherwise hurt your feelings. And you can be very acidic with your witty language. The more you involve yourself in artistic activities that put your imagination and intuition to work, the more you feel good about yourself!

You are both intelligent and curious, witty and funny. You can get quite intrigued by someone who offers moments of pure joy and romantic escapades, but to you, even having a fascinating conversation about the nature of the world achieves the same effect. Most people see you as a very restrained and controlled woman who can take care of herself perfectly. This impression is based on your self-disciplined and resolute character.

Moreover, your intelligence is often underestimated until the evidence points to the contrary. Witty and smart as a whip, you use your intuition and imagination to enhance your beauty and natural sex appeal.

Your personality can't be tamed or put under chains. You can be hyperactive, varying different types of activities and interests at the same time, just to make your day even more entertaining and dynamic. You are multifunctional, and you love to combine your many passions and hobbies.

With a flexible and adaptable personality, you need to do something that puts your brain at work, even the smallest thing would do, as long as you are not procrastinating. Boredom, tediousness, and inactivity are your greatest enemies. Nothing can stop you from breaking free from the societal shackles and just roam the world, do as many things as possible, and engage yourself in plenty of social events.

You don't have a problem with unfinished tasks, as you know you'll eventually come around and solve all your problems. Your path is anything but straight. You run around amok, searching for things to do, ideas to uncover, mysteries to solve. To put it into perspective, you are the type to do all the side-quests in a game before even starting the main quest line.

Strengths: Persuasive and charming

Potential area(s) for growth: Distracted and lazy

Life lesson: Coping with less enthusiasm from other people

F1 Drivers who have this placement: None

Mars in the Fifth House

You need to be creative, so your entire energy will be invested in doing something imaginative. You like taking risks and would do a great job at speculating or gambling. Playing a sport outdoors and being an entrepreneur makes you thrive. You need to express your individuality and aren't in any way disciplined but enjoy any sport. The fact that you're competitive can be to your advantage.

It can be difficult for you to do what you don't enjoy, so it's very possible you will always postpone what doesn't make you feel good. You tend to assert yourself by relating feelings to pleasures and the way you enjoy life. You are fun, romantic, active and creative. Also, courageous and always eager to take risks, you're often sure of yourself and look only to have as much fun as possible.

You love to love and pursue romantic relationships everywhere you go. Athletic, hurried and chaotic, you want to show off and to be in the center of attention through the results of your creative projects. Because you only want to win, it can be impossible for you to accept failure. Famous for your pride, you have a tendency to be arrogant from time to time.

A lot of your energy will be spent on children and friends. Hard working, you have a talent for the theater and really know how to lead in the family. There's no one more eager than you to be happy and romantic. While sincere, you love to put on a show and to sometimes reveal your mean side. Your readiness for action will have you raise energetic children who are capable of deep emotions.

You love all of life's pleasures and have a strong impulse to look for love. Enjoyable and always agreeing, you hate conflict and would never fight, no matter how bad someone is treating you.

It can be impressive to watch you become all this, even if it happens very rarely. Not to mention an apology will never come because you'd be convinced you're right. You think fun is very important and usually convince friends to center their attention on you.

You would do a great job as a leader. However, this position can also make you a real bully, as you're very direct and can offend many with your boldness. It's important you tone it down a little bit and try to determine who's feeling uncomfortable with you, and why. You can manipulate others to do what you want, so you're not the fairest. Dramatic and fun, you also sometimes hurt others and get distracted.

It's important you don't explode in anger around loved ones or when competing, because things with you may get out of hand when having this feeling. Channeling your aggressiveness towards something positive would be a good idea. You should also realize selfishness has only a bad influence in life, consuming a lot of precious energy that is meant only for fun things. If you didn't pay so much attention only to yourself, others would follow you into playing your games.

Strengths: Sensual, entertaining and competitive

Challenges: Obstinate and superficial

Advice: Avoid settling and always keep trying new things

Jupiter in Gemini 4° (4th House)

Jupiter represents luck, expansion, and grace.

You are curious, restless and it seems like you have a million ideas rolling through your head at any given point. Because you want to gain as much knowledge as possible, you will travel and interact with people from other continents. It's also possible you are an avid reader who devours every book on philosophy or the world's cultures.

As you are intelligent and resourceful, you would be great as a writer, teacher or historian. Ruling over Sagittarius, which is placed opposite the Gemini on the zodiac, Jupiter is in a detriment position when in the Twins sign. This means you need to work harder at being more decisive and open to taking risks (I share this placement with you and I feel this deeply!)

Relaxed, easygoing and delightfully inquisitive, you will always look for an interesting conversation. Not only do you know how to listen, you are also very good with words. It's not enough for you to just know how someone has been, you will want to find out more. People like you because you are great conversationalists. Not to mention you have a unique charm that gets everyone's attention.

You are determined and even lucky when it comes to money. You can recognize a good financial opportunity from a mile away. All the savings you give away because you are generous will someday come back to you. An intellectual, you like to engage in all kinds of fiery debates. You are able to see more than one side because you are open-minded and adaptable. You will never stick to just one opinion or refuse to accept what others are saying. Your curiosity makes you a great teacher and an impeccable student.

If You focus on training your mind, you will enjoy the benefits very soon. Not to mention, you are able to see both the big picture and the details. You need to be free to travel and to make a lot of friends if you are to be happy. You love new adventures and experiences. It seems life is meant for you to live it to its fullest.

You are multitasking and energetic enough to learn at a fast pace. Your luck will change if you make use of your curiosity and wit. You will greatly benefit from being sociable. People will always want to be around you because they feel comfortable with your adaptable ways. It's easy for you to remain neutral and explore any intellectual challenge. But things need to be changing and fast-paced for you to enjoy them.

You will be successful because you can absorb useful information very fast. As you are good at expressing your thoughts, you would make a good musician, writer, actor or teacher. What others will find difficult to communicate, you won't see a problem with. It wouldn't matter the subject, you will always have something interesting to say. But because you're all over the place, it's hard for you to focus on the same thing for too long.

You are a free spirit, intelligent and have a talent for communication. You will find out that luck can come to you if you are communicative and open to write, lecture or speak.

You are open to any new project, but at the same time easily bored. It's possible you will start a lot of things but won't have the patience to finish them. It's because you would rather spend time making new friends and communicating. The activities of visiting and sending emails or texts are your favorite.

You have a deep connection with nature and can sometimes communicate telepathically. You also like to get informed from TV or the Internet. You are like a mobile data provider who's all the time connected to a device. That's why you should be more aware of the people around you. Technology can damage the way you communicate. Not to mention your luck in life comes from getting together with new people and from spontaneous conversations.

Your happiest moments in life can be attained only when they are forming alliances with friends and family. If you want to gather your thoughts, try to spend a nice day at a new coffee-place.

Strengths: Versatile, witty and restless

Possible areas for growth: Easily bored and noisy

Advice: Try not to agonize over important decisions

F1 Drivers who have this placement: Daniel Ricciardo

Jupiter in the Fourth House

You are usually very lucky because this planet brings only abundance and good fortune. It's very possible you will be filthy rich, the type who lives in a mansion or on an island. And all this will happen to you at an early age.

You need a place that has many windows and a beautiful view as you tend to be quite claustrophobic. You're usually generous and love friends or family more than anything else in the world.

You manage life very well. Good-looking and always positive. You know how to do business and even have a talent for astrology or politics. You will always look for a partner who can help you make dreams of a beautiful home come true. Their childhood inspired them to search for this and to want comfort.

Very nurturing and wanting as many people as possible in your life, you need to have a "nest" where you can retreat when life seems difficult. You will be very respected. You love to renovate your home and to buy as much furniture as possible. Not liking chaos and always looking for peace, you won't stick your nose where it doesn't belong and will try not to gossip too often. This is also because you have good morals and like to keep loved ones protected from people who don't want others messing with your business.

You can achieve success without even struggling. It's suggested you learn how to work more for yourself and how to use your instinct in order for luck to come your way. Sharing is caring, so you would only do great things if you'd give as much as you can from your wealth away. It's important you don't grow to be dependent on others and figure out what makes you tick on your own.

Being manipulative is something that characterizes you a lot and also doesn't do you any good. While not even realizing it, you're capable of changing your own luck around and making things happen while focusing on others. You would hate to get someone hurt and really don't like change. That's why it's essential for you to learn that things don't always happen your way and that life is sometimes surprising.

Strengths: Prosperous, determined and elegant

Challenges: Manipulative, loud and overly emotional

Advice: Don't keep any toxic people in your life

Saturn in Capricorn 13° (12th House) CHART RULER

Only time and effort can get you what you want, and in this sense, you dedicate yourself fully to the accomplishment of your dreams. With ambition, perseverance, and great organizational skills, you use your skills in very efficient ways, giving off the impression that you can take on anything and still come out victorious. Sometimes, you even have problems differentiating between some quality time alone and working hours, because you often combine them. Moreover, social acceptance is pretty important to you, as well as climbing up the social ladder.

You are an over-achiever above all else, the type of person who either goes all-in or doesn't go at all. For you, there is either complete victory or utter defeat. There are no half-assed attempts, only definite and straightforward achievements. Symbolically, your responsible and relentless personality is similar to the rough hardness of a diamond, immutable even in the face of time itself, let alone outside attempts to break it.

With great ambition and one singular idea to pursue, for the time being, you produce immense quantities of effort and galvanize all your inner potential in order to attain your innermost desires. Professional advancement represents the essential factor that counts to you toward a happy and comfortable life. In this sense, you very much prefer to work alone because, on the one hand, you fully know what you are capable of, as well as the limits, and on the other hand, you don't do well in coordinating your efforts in a team project.

In order to truly bring out the best in you, you prefer working in an organized environment, where you can peacefully devise a plan, deconstruct ideas, work things up on how to achieve the desired outcome. It's very easy for you to have the best results with this in mind, and one of your biggest fears is not being validated for your hard work. Appreciation matters a lot, because it inflates your ego even further, and most individuals, who believe themselves to be smarter than everyone else, like this feeling.

Dedication comes with time, and it comes from a desire to achieve something, to find fulfillment. There are plenty of reasons why people work hard, but you work out of a need to feel in control of any situation. If you were to let everything play out without interfering, the end result would be random, out of your control, way too unpredictable for comfort.

Relaxation time comes only after all the responsibilities have been taken care of, and since you seem to never finish your work, or always find other outlets to pour your unending energy in, it's a given that you don't take the necessary time to enjoy life as well. On your path to achieving a secure and stable lifestyle, you might forget about living life in general.

For all the responsibility and pragmatic efficiency that you demonstrate to have in professional life, things are very different when it comes to intimate relationships, to love matters. Because you tend to focus too much on plans and projects at work, you constantly forget about taking the time to take care of yourself, and this obviously means that your partner will feel neglected.

Your goals are admirable, as well as motivations, but in the meantime, there is a clear lack of affection in your relationship. To express emotions and feelings is not a sign of weakness, but one of maturity, of growth, of being human. You become a very reliable and devoted person once you commit to a relationship, and this is often the trump card that saves the day. You must really take some time off and show your partner that nothing matters as much as the relationship for you.

Your highly efficient and productive persona, as well as the infinitely ambitious personality, make others believe that this is a psychopath, someone lacking in any feelings, a workaholic who cares about nothing else than the career. However, family and personal relationships matter at least as much as professional success, it's only that you often get too focused on a given project.

Social skills are very developed in your case, especially speaking abilities. You can be persuasive, manipulative, and can really deliver a great speech in front of an audience. Someone should never get into a debate with you because you're going to turn them upside down and make it seem like they were wrong, to begin with. It also doesn't help that you're a down-to-earth individual and will likely never over-step certain logical barriers.

With a laborious attitude and a confidence to scare gods away, you are equipped with everything you could ever wish for. Indomitable will, scorching passion, a boundless source of spirit and energy, resourcefulness, you have all the qualities that warrant a great future, and you will achieve it by taking on any and all challenges.

There are only a handful of people who could be a match for your ambition and perseverance. With patience, a restrained and controlled temper, self-imposed rules, and a safe refuge to return to when the situation becomes dire, you have nothing to fear at all. Countless new possibilities appear before you, and you have to be daring, act with confidence, and take them all on. Either repairing past mistakes, or rethinking the plans for the future, the influence of Saturn's realistic energy will enhance it all the same, and the guiding lines it offers are an essential element in this sense.

Top qualities: Ambitious, stable and relentless

Challenges: Stubbornness and pessimism

Advice: You are too selfish when trying to protect your emotions

F1 Drivers who have this placement: Daniel Ricciardo, Sergio Perez, Valtteri Bottas

Saturn in the Twelfth House

You are disciplined and sensitive. You may always doubt yourself, be fearful and insecure. You're all the time feeling guilty about everything and have no idea to identify where all this is coming from. Loving to be alone, you may work from the shadows and do for a living something that doesn't require you to work with the public.

You will have to deal with setbacks early in life, so you'll always want to place some harsh realities you may have been dealing with into your unconscious mind.

Being afraid of what's about to come and completely overwhelmed by your own emotions, all these things may be what causes you to feel anxious. It's bad enough that you don't accept to be helped and prefer to retreat in solitude when facing problems because others could really help you when you're feeling down. However, you don't want to feel in any way weak or to seem like you're depending on people.

The result of this is separation and total loneliness. Very attracted to always being in control, it's also possible for you to discover that if you let others inside your inner world, you may be helped with your feeling of guilt, insecurities and the permanent anxiety that doesn't allow you to love your life to the maximum.

It's very important for you to embrace what makes you feel bad and to become free from all the guilt as soon as you start to accept yourself for who you are. You should talk about the fact that you sometimes escape reality and question yourself by having long discussions with your alter ego. Understanding the real world with what this requires and brings in terms of happiness is also essential for you to have a correct perception over what's real.

The more you try this, the happier you get to be. This house is like a deserted island, so placements here can make people feel closed and wanting as many moments of loneliness as possible. Your healing and communicative ways with the divinity can't be denied, and you surely understand what it means to be of service, devoted and self-sacrificing. Surrounded by shadows, Saturn makes you feel a guilt you can't escape, so being happy and working with a defense against what's hurtful can seem impossible for you.

In spite of the fact that you are a loner, you still have a need to become part of the collective. You may become a religious fanatic, spiritual guide and even junkie just because you're looking for happiness and to escape your constant feeling of guilt. You will spend a lot of time alone and even in exile as loneliness simply makes you feel better.

Because you can't express your thoughts very clearly and are often misunderstood, it's very likely you will want even more to be left alone. You will fear letting yourself go to a higher power but will still believe the Universe is awake and working.

Saturn guides people meticulously, and when in the 12th house, it asks for satisfaction through mysticism and lonely moments of complete hollowness. The house is strongly related to self-sacrifice and brings a lot of anxiety when dealing with loss. You may feel you're going to lose everything you've worked for and there's no one to blame for this but yourself.

You have strong emotions and are always feeling like life overwhelms you. Being also the house of imagination and fantasy, you may have a great talent for the arts. You'd be able to paint amazingly from your mind and to put your emotions into music. Your right brain is completely developed, so if you didn't train as an artist, you should at least write.

You will probably become very famous if you learn something having to do with the arts from an early age. You are generous and flexible, so many different people will want to be your friends for a lifetime.

Pay attention to whom you're trusting. You will always be terrified of letting others down. This is what will impede you from moving forward, no matter if it's about career or personal life. Analyzing a situation before taking action or realizing in some situations you can't act alone are also very good ideas for you but you, however, hate to ask for any help and keep your feelings bottled up inside, which can start to become dangerous with time. As a matter of fact, this is what causes you to be insecure.

Strengths: Flexible, generous and creative

Challenges: Stern, superficial and manipulative

Advice: There is no need to pretend you are happy when you are not feeling it

Strong Aspects

Saturn conjunct Neptune

This can make life very difficult if you lacked a stable and supportive home life when you were growing up. Learning self-confidence and self-belief are critical to avoiding the fear and disappointment of this aspect. Hard work is needed to gain the education and skills to succeed. Furthermore, honesty and respect will make sure you reach your full potential. If you do these things, you can make your dreams come true.

You must work very hard if your parents are weak, unreliable, or a negative influence. Because even with a "normal" childhood, you will likely struggle with fear, insecurity, negativity, loss, and disappointment. Just as positive thinking can make your dreams come true with this aspect, negative thinking can make your nightmares come true. Therefore, you must do all you can to improve your self-esteem. If you cannot help yourself, seek medical help, especially if you suffer from anxiety or depression.

If you do not think highly of yourself, other people will not treat you well. You may feel sorry for others and try to save them. But this is not healthy and leaves you susceptible to abuse. In contrast, you may play the role of victim to force someone to look after you. Neither option is healthy and can spiral into a series of codependent relationships, insecurity, and guilt. Escapism through drugs, fantasy, gambling, sexual affairs, conspiracy theories, or cults could stunt your development.

You may be susceptible to deception, fraud, and other unethical treatment. The best way to avoid such things is to be strictly moral and ethical in your behavior. Otherwise, legal action, scandal, and loss could damage your relationships, reputation, and career.

You will only gain confidence and self-respect when you face reality and stop deceiving yourself and others. Only then will you truly believe in yourself and be able to trust other people. Then you will stop worrying about the future and trust that everything will be okay because you will make it okay. Imagine a positive future, and it will manifest.

You can be self-sacrificing in a healthy way. You could potentially live with very little material comfort. Possessions are not that important to you, and you are willing to sacrifice personal needs for your beliefs and help others. But first, you must learn, practice, and perfect the skills you need to succeed. You cannot help others until you help yourself.

Saturn sextile Pluto

You have a steely determination and endurance which you put to practical use to create something of value, something lasting. You have an amazing ability to focus on a particular project and see it to completion.

You keep probing and keep working so hard like a machine. Systems and order are a high priority in your life, so you often have a systematic approach to life, with strict regimes and structures in place to maintain order and a sense of security.

However, any strict self-discipline does not restrict your creative process. You can find revolutionary new ways of doing things. But your continual self-development is generally smooth and not disruptive. You change or evolve in a sustained and orderly way.

You have incredible endurance and recuperative powers. You can face any challenge or crisis head-on and be a source of strength for others.

You are a survivor and can function efficiently on very little. Respect and high recognition can come from your achievements. You may also have managerial potential and would climb the ladder in a large corporation or government department to a leadership role.

Uranus in Capricorn 5° (12th House)

Uranus represents individual liberty, egoistic liberty.

The following applies to your generation as a whole as well as to you personally: You can be very imaginative and innovative, especially in your professional life, when it comes to conducting business. Getting out of your comfort zone is irritating and annoying. Of course, through trial and error, you manage to bring the best of both worlds together, working with an orderly structure in mind, but being willing to implement new ideas as well.

Change should come as a result of long planning, out of necessity to develop certain social constructs and beliefs that had been sunken into a stagnant past. It should never be caused through violence, using a forceful approach, because that will tear all the social conformism, it will make people perceive it as a bad thing, it will make you reticent and unwilling.

With your abilities and great intellect, you pave your own path through the muddy world, with a clear plan for the future in your mind. You are determined, unrestrained, willing to risk a lot to reach your objectives, and most importantly, you are bold enough to take on any challenge. With how you deal with problems, observing and then analyzing them to formulate the perfect solution, success is inevitable.

You are very ambitious, hard-working, perseverant, and make full use of your innovative ideas to bring your goals closer and closer. Although you may be quite a bit chaotic from time to time because you would never give up on your ideas once a plan was started, you are still very productive most of the time. Impulsivity is your second nature, almost, and in your path towards attaining a brilliant future, you will jump head-long into battle without thinking of the risks involved.

You don't relax until your plans have either been fully implemented or when you know for sure that nothing bad will happen. Responsibility is your middle name, and you bring great changes to the world through your innovative ideas.

You may fancy being called a risk-taker but in reality, you take into consideration all the possibilities of failure and success before committing to a course of action. Because you want stability and security, you will want to meet a partner who caters to these needs. With your imagination and deep intuition, you will do everything it takes to reach a consensus, overcome all of the challenges, and reach a perfect understanding.

You never give up and will always fight recklessly to protect your ideas. With great tenacity and resourcefulness, you always manage to overcome any challenge, and this is mainly because you are very stubborn. Unless you see no path forward, you will never stop yourself from trying. If there's even the smallest possibility, you will keep on going no matter the risks involved.

Top qualities: Organized and thoughtful

Challenges: Pessimistic and aloof

Advice: Try to get used to and accept disruption

F1 Drivers who have this placement: Carlos Sainz, Daniel Ricciardo, Esteban Ocon, Nicholas Latifi, Sergio Perez, Valtteri Bottas

Uranus in the Twelfth House

You have a need to be of help and may give a hand to others in the most unusual ways because that's the way you are: unusual. It's like your purpose in life is to contribute and you're never expecting any recognition or reward when supporting others. It's very likely for you to be an artist because your mind is very creative and you love to be in the company of people who are tasteful.

You want to see beyond reality and to cross the boundaries between this world and the one that can't be seen with the naked eye. You are very eager to express yourself freely by studying, being involved in all kinds of affairs and dealing with the unknown. You can have strange ways when helping others and may want to remain anonymous when being generous. Many things will happen in your life, and you will get to change some of your habits or objects of affection due to these events.

You happen to have psychic abilities that can help you a lot during your lifetime. Because this house is the one of dreams and imagination, you may get a lot of insight about your life while sleeping. It's like your best ideas and even the most ingenious inventions are somehow revealed to you in your dreams. Things will come to you suddenly and you will be very inspired in what you may be doing for a living because you always have the answers to problems in your head.

Having a rich imagination, you're very capable of lucid dreaming. You may work in the shadows and do great things while not even searching for recognition. You don't seem to have enough confidence to do something too out of the ordinary, so Uranus makes you feel guilty for being too shy to express what's in your mind or for not just doing what you want in life. It's good you're cautious because this way, you're also more realistic. You want to make the world a better place and are very interested in expressing yourself freely.

You could be the genius of society, but don't reveal your qualities because you think it's safer for you this way. When in the company of creative individuals, you start to become better and better. It's important for you to not be afraid of any obstacles in your way as innovation doesn't happen when the inventors or creators are scared of the unknown.

It's essential for you to no longer feel stressed and to retreat from time to time, in order to gather your forces. Spend some time alone and focus on your feelings and what keeps bringing you down. It can be very exhausting for you to always be in the shadows and to pull all the strings alone, without anyone to help you. While struggling to make the world a better place, you're putting a lot of pressure on yourself to make the utopia in your mind a reality.

Strengths: Ingenious, elegant and unconventional

Challenges: Distracted, cautious and superficial

Advice: Try to look at work with joy not resentment

Neptune in Capricorn 12° (12th House)

Neptune represents transcendental liberty, non-egoistic liberty.

The following applies to your generation as a whole as well as to you personally: You are especially interested in the methods of getting rich, in achieving success. You want to be in control of all situations, to never again have to ask for permission, to have everything you ever wished for.

Fame, fortune, good looks, a luxurious lifestyle - there are plenty of things that are tied to success, and you want them all. However, the path is a long and hard one, which you are not fully aware of. Although you come up with new and innovative ideas, it's not certain that you'll succeed. You have very different perspectives on life than everyone else, putting more emphasis on routine, on doing a good work, being responsible, and having the moral principles to advance unimpeded by mere distractions. Nothing can make you shift your attention from the goal at hand because you know that once you lose focus, the plan is shattered into smithereens and there's nothing else to do.

You know exactly how to tackle a problem in order to efficiently dispose of it, and manage to do it in the most productive way possible, with time to spare. You are the new generation of people who won't abandon dreams in spite of all opposition. You are set on accomplishing your deepest desires, but are also very careful that you never end up entertaining idealistic wishes.

Personal fulfillment comes with material happiness, not with some kind of transcendent and supernatural sense of illumination. That's too elusive a goalpost to follow. The good news with your realism and good-natured personality is that you are pretty much bulletproof to religious claims, extreme attitudes of racism, spirituality, conspiracy. Nothing is more important than achieving your dreams in this life. The uncertainty of an afterlife leaves you indifferent at best, totally irritated at the very worst.

You can adapt pretty quickly to any given situation, no matter how bad it may be. If something doesn't go the way you want, it might frighten you a bit in the beginning, but this is just for the time being. You will eventually understand that not everything is in your favor and that you have to be prepared for the worst sometimes.

Disappointments happen, failures take place quite often, and you must learn that these things are completely normal, to begin with. You can be very frustrated and annoyed at the situation in front of you, as people keep on letting you down. The sheer willpower that you possess inspires many people to try harder and strive for a higher end-goal.

Creative and imaginative, you know exactly how to approach people, and if you could find a way to combine this passion with your professional life, that would be a dream come true.

Strengths: Resourceful, thoughtful and goal-oriented

Challenges: Stubborn and selfish

Advice: Do only what keeps you happy with yourself

F1 Drivers who have this placement: Alex Albon, Carlos Sainz, Charles Leclerc, Daniel Ricciardo, Esteban Ocon, Lance Stroll, Max Verstappen, Mich Schumacher, Nicholas Latifi, Pierre Gasly, Sebastian Vettel, Sergio Perez, Valtteri Bottas

Neptune in the Twelfth House

You have all kinds of fears from your past. You tend to focus on what's wrong with your life and when it comes to interacting with others, you only seem to absorb what's negative. Try to focus more on your own happiness and don't stress that much about everyday issues. Very intuitive and strong in their heart, you can surprise with your easygoing attitude and shyness.

While very compassionate and kind, you don't express all these things directly, and many people may not get the chance to understand you or worse, might feel hurt regarding your attitude. You need to acknowledge your spirituality or else you can end up being very unhappy and unfulfilled. It's possible for you to feel weak in front of the usual changes life has to offer because you're thinking you can't handle working with something new. The truth is, your faith will always help you, so being fearful doesn't make any sense for you. You should believe in yourself because otherwise, you can escape in a world of fantasy and avoid reality, which isn't in any way healthy.

You will discover you're capable of great spirituality when you get older. You are very sensitive to the society as a whole and sometimes feel like a victim of chaos and immorality. You are very kind and open to different emotions, no matter whom you may be dealing with. You have psychic abilities and can guess what other people are thinking or feeling. The planet Neptune can make your ego feel overwhelmed because it's always open to external stimuli.

You may be vulnerable because you don't have any protective fences to surround your sensitivity and also because Neptune doesn't have any boundaries when being here, in the house of images and feelings of the collective. At the same time, this planet gives you abundant creativity and the wish to become a great artist. Very talented with music, poetry, painting, photography and other forms of self-expression, you can become very famous in the art world.

Furthermore, you have a need to be with others, to merge and to feel the love of the collective. You're also very connected with the Universe as the 12th house and Neptune are both spiritual and resonate with what lies within people.

It can be difficult to describe you and your feelings because you're all the time overwhelmed in your unconscious, which is ruled by the 12th house. This house can have you feeling deeply about many things in life, including your ancestors, as it rules over the past and the conscious memories.

You're so good at dealing with different realities because you're a good clairvoyant and psychic. You may even dream what's about to happen or in symbols that transmit you messages. That's why you should study mysticism and learn how to interpret your dreams. The problem with this is that negative things from the other side can enter your world, in this reality. Because Neptune is very passive and would allow for this to happen, your sensitivity may increase, and you'd absorb all the pain and suffering of the world.

People love you for being empathic and for easily perceiving their thoughts or feelings, but this can have negative effects over your own health. What you should be careful with is your unexplained guilt as it can truly wear you down. Wanting to help everyone, you never get to make this dream of yours come true because there is no way someone can help so many people as you would want to.

Each time a person around you is going through some bad times, you tend to blame yourself and have an enormous amount of guilt creeping on you. Therefore, you may end up not helping or causing the situation to be worse. If you really want to give a hand, you need to first establish who you are and how you can manage your own life.

You are highly intuitive and very strong in your heart. You may seem passive, but when needed to, you can become fierce. You love the role of the underdog and to give a hand to those who need it the most. However the 12th house can be pretty suppressive, so you won't be too focused on taking action and most of the time feel guilty for nothing. What Neptune does is put rose-colored glasses in front of your eyes, making you see and hear only what you want.

You need to work on your self-confidence and to think of yourself as an independent creature who can handle any problem without too much help. You're very supportive and helpful. It's easy for you to calm people down and to give hope everything is going to be okay. However, before focusing on others, you need to work on yourself and to make sure you're grounded in reality, just enough to be able to help.

Your compassion makes you strong, so you should learn how to use it. Change mustn't be something that terrifies you because it can only help your life to move forward. It's important for you to deal with problems directly, especially when these are about work. You're sometimes so overwhelmed by everyday life that you just want to hide and to escape reality.

This is why you're always shy and trying to run from difficult situations, which means you're not always able to develop from an emotional and spiritual point of view. When you can't seem to get a grasp of the knowledge transmitted by what you're experiencing, take a step back and look for your level of maturity. In the situation in which you can't express yourself the way they want to, you start to feel very upset and even guilty. Learn how to talk about conflicts and discuss the feelings you get from others' actions or words because holding things inside will only cause you to be more hurt.

Strengths: Creative, indulgent and generous;

Challenges: Overly emotional and pessimistic;

Advice: Show to those close that you can be depended upon

Pluto in Scorpio 14° (9th House)

The following applies to your generation as a whole as well as to you personally: You are emotional above all else, always taking the time to think about whether your actions would hurt the others or always involving yourself in activities where you can make full use of your sensitivity.

However, this is not always such a good thing because it might drive you to miss out on the essentials because you are too attentive to the softer aspects. When you start to lose focus of your priorities and get too entrenched into one singular detail, fussing over it for hours on end, you lose efficiency, and may possibly even fall prey to frustration and depression.

You need to learn that being practical and controlling one's emotions are requirements for a balanced mindset. You are one of the most contradictory individuals of the whole zodiac, through the wide array of strange principles and viewpoints that you carry with you in life.

You can be very naïve and easily influenceable because straight, rational thinking is just not your forte. You often pursue unrealistic goals and are prone to incessant stubbornness. You are a free-spirited individual who wants to explore the world and see it for what it truly is. You don't abide by most societal rules and don't recognize the authority of someone who tries to limit your freedom. When you get too passionate and interested in one of your idealistic dreams, nothing can stop you from achieving it, or from trying at least.

One of your greatest perks is being able to create a form of peaceful communion wherever you go. With the prospect of unknown secrets to reveal and natural disposition towards helping others, most people fall under your spell. You like to explore the world and expand your breadth of knowledge without being hindered by preconceptions or fundamental creeds. You wish to discover what lies behind everyone else, at your own pace preferably, and to do that, you must break apart the age-old stereotypes, presuppositions, and biases.

Other than this, one can cause a lot of chaos in your wake, because there is no discernible pattern to your actions. You can be extremely negativistic, as you can just as well be the most enthusiastic and positive person out there. You are very intelligent, very analytical, and observant.

What makes you even more controversial is that you are also very standoffish about your convictions. If someone dares to contradict you when they know you're right, all hell's going to break loose as you can be very acidic with your words.

Strengths: Responsible, loyal and practical

Challenges: Manipulative, deceitful and contradictory

Advice: You might want to be careful to your reaction to change

F1 Drivers who have this placement: Carlos Sainz, Daniel Ricciardo, Esteban Ocon, Lewis Hamilton, Nicholas Latifi, Sebastian Vettel, Sergio Perez, Valtteri Bottas

Pluto in the Ninth House

You have a very extreme and rigid outlook, in the sense that it's either going to go down your way or no way at all. You don't accept any compromises at all, and one can be damn sure that you have the arguments and knowledge to argue the logic of your ideas. You want to find out the truth of this world, to explore and accumulate knowledge, to engage in debates, and to defend your beliefs with near-zealotic aggressiveness.

In spite of your aggressive and impetuous nature to enforce your beliefs and argue with anyone who dares to contradict you, you are very aware of your own limitations. You want to become better, to right your wrongs and to change the whole world, actually. An intelligent and curious individual who is enlivened by the prospect of learning and accumulating knowledge, making every effort to see beyond the natural veil of the world, you can also be incredibly stubborn and firm in your beliefs. You will not back away from any confrontation, even if the adversary is a well-known public figure. So what? Ideas are ideas, people are people.

Others look up to you as being very profound and creative, a trait of an intelligent individual. You come up with great ideas and may have had truly mind-blowing experiences in the past. You inspire everyone else to aspire for more, to become better, superior. You have an eagle's eye on the world, a larger perspective that takes everything into consideration at face value. In this sense, you are generally isolated and alienated from the rest of society, in a world of your own, trying to find your own identity and purpose, to strengthen your views and principles.

You take great joy and find it to be very relieving to change minds, to show others the truth and to explain things about the world that most couldn't even think of. At least, this is one of your main goals in this life, to contribute to a new enlightenment period. However, things are different in reality because of your deep intuition and insight which supplies you with answers and solutions to problems, coming out of the blue, with no logical explanations. It's obviously harder to argue the veracity and reasonableness of these ideas. This creates a feeling of inadequacy and isolation.

You strive to be perfect, to achieve better and better results, and with each constant attempt, you are fixing your flaws, capitalizing on the advantages. This also throws you into a lot of psychological tension. Stress, exhaustion, both physical and psychological. Moreover, there is also the tendency to criticize your own work and become self-absorbed with the mistakes and the flaws.

Lack of satisfaction with personal implication, the lack of pure joy when things go the right way. This is already a critical point in your life which would take drastic action to come back from. You can't stand fake and pretentious people, superficiality or ignorance in any forms. You are one of the few ones out there that are truly interested in learning and gaining knowledge for the sake of evolving alone.

Strengths: Curious, profound and creative

Challenges: Self-absorbed, sloppy and criticizing

Advice: Aspire to higher ideals

Chiron in Cancer 1° (5th House): THE WOUND OF FAMILY

Chiron's influence describes the area where you are feeling wounded, but also holds the knowledge and the power you have to heal. First, you must confront this wound and the feelings being inadequate and not worth enough, and through exposing yourself to the feelings and situations which are hurting you, you learn how to overcome them and rise above.

These wounds are usually deep-seated and painful, and it takes a lot of courage and determination to get over them. Once you manage to do that, you can become free of the heaviness and the burden you have been carrying along.

The symbolism of the sign and the house where Chiron is placed describes the areas where the wounds are and the lessons are to be learned. It might happen that you know exactly what others need to do when these areas are concerned, but when it comes to your life you seem to have difficulty finding the right way out.

You have probably felt inadequate and unsuccessful in these areas all your life, but when you learn to overcome the inadequacy you will become the true master of your life and become stronger than you ever were.

Chiron is asking you to have the honesty and admit to yourself that you have problems and insecurities regarding these areas, overcome the shame and your ego and begin taking actions to overcome these insecurities and heal.

One of the effects that Chiron has on your behavior is making you overcompensate in the areas where you feel its influence; you could be feeling not good enough or incompetent or that you will never be able to be good enough.

Chiron in Cancer

You have an especially difficult wound that comes from family, however keep in mind that there is always a silver lining! You are likely to end up being an incredible parent, aunt, or even just an extremely loving person if able to work through this wound.

The Chiron in Cancer wound is the core belief that you are unlovable and have been abandoned. You have been wounded by your family in some way. There is some sort of early childhood family trauma that leads to core feelings of loneliness, emotional pain, or emptiness. Perhaps you feel that love exists but may not be able to find it. You may also think that you're just unworthy of it and have extremely low self-esteem.

You may withdraw from love, only pursuing relationships with unattainable people (or those who are definitely not interested), which only reinforces the idea that you are unlovable. (I, too, have my Chiron in Cancer and you can evidently see how I did just this.)

You may fantasize about people who you can never have a successful relationship with or you may live the single life indefinitely.

You might also technically enter into relationships but refuse to actually open up. You are so afraid of losing nurture (as you did in childhood) that you never try to get it in the first place. Your fear of loss is the main issue here, but this stems from the original wound.

Alternatively, you may overboard nurturing others. You may smother your partners and friends and become the typical needy “Cancer individual” who is looking for emotional attention and validation 24/7.

You have a constant, nagging feeling of emptiness; you search for ways to fill this hole up. You often over-idealize partners by putting them on a pedestal in order to distract from your own inner turmoil, but you have extremely painful breakups when these relationships inevitably fail.

When a relationship does end, you may feel as though you have lost everything. You don't know how to exist without the other person because you used the relationship to compensate for your own wound.

You are especially vulnerable around your family. This hole inside them feels extra painful around family members and you may act differently to try and gain any sort of praise, attention, love, etc., when what you are really seeking is nurture and acceptance.

You will probably go to any lengths to get love from other people, especially family and intimate friends. You may pretend to be someone they're not, self-sacrifice for others, lie, or delude yourself about who the other person is. The thing that matters most to you is replacing the hole inside themselves with love.

Where Does the Wound Come From?

This wound almost always comes from early experiences with family. Often, this indicates core issues with the mother, but it is also possible to have this placement due to the father or family in general.

Your attitude towards your parent (or parental figure) in question is marked by idealization or by contempt. If you have lost one parent early on, for any reason, you are inclined towards idealization; if abandoned, you are inclined towards disappointment and contempt.

How To Heal Chiron In Cancer?

Your instinct is to avoid or band aid the pain, but this is only a temporary fix. Instead, you will need to go through the pain. More than any other placement, Chiron in Cancer requires therapeutic-like work to heal. If traditional therapy isn't an option (although I do feel that a good therapist can help you make leaps and bounds), then I recommend looking at books or YouTube videos.

You'll want to search for material that aids in healing family issues, mother issues, codependency, working with attachment styles, and developing boundaries.

It's hard work, but it's incredibly worth it to heal Chiron in Cancer. Because you have so much pain and have successfully worked through it, you can be one of the most loving and caring people on the earth.

Chiron in the Fifth House

You probably hide what is unique about you. You take many various reactions from others as rejection, even when they're not. Your inner infant wasn't given nonjudgmental freedom to play, so now you are hyper self-critical and aware. You are afraid of how others would receive your most vulnerable self. To try and cloak this fear, you simply suppress that part of you. You might be extra-self conscious. It's hard for you to let go and have fun.

You might want children but are unable to have them, so you live with this wound, or you might become hyper-critical of your children because you don't want them to experience the wound that you felt.

Alternatively, you might be wounded or betrayed by partners and by romance in general. Your unhealed wound is to your self-expression and creativity. It may manifest through areas of creative work, romance, and children.

Other possibilities include:

- Heart problems
- Difficulty expressing your creative gifts and shining your unique light
- Feel self-conscious and unable to let go and be spontaneous
- Lack of self-confidence conflicting with desire to shine and be admired
- Raw, visceral self-expression which can become destructive
- Hiding your desire to create and criticizing others who do
- Wanting to have children but unable to do so
- Problems with children being wounded or difficult in other ways
- Wounding through romance, being let down by partners or betrayed

Healing comes from empowering yourself, living from the heart and seeing all of life as a creative process. Learning to be vulnerable with yourself is always a good first step, as well as finding the will to create and shine. The goal with Chiron in the 5th house is to live from the heart with honesty and integrity.

North Node in Pisces 4° (1st House) / South Node in Virgo (7th House)

The South Node represents our overdeveloped character traits. You're talented here but if you overdo this area of life or hold onto these traits to feel secure, you may stagnate. The North Node points to the qualities that you need to work on and develop to achieve inner balance and fulfillment.

North Node in Pisces

Just like the symbol of Pisces, you're swimming against the water current and therefore what's socially accepted, benefiting a lot from this attitude. You can sometimes worry too much because you have hidden fears and your faith can be lost. You can discover that beauty is nurturing for you because through it, you can attain higher power. More than this, you can fight against odds because you're strong enough and can be led to what your spirit desires by your own system of direction.

You are compassionate and have vision, and that you are also capable of leading. It doesn't matter what you're choosing as a career, it's your compassion and intuitive ways that can make you successful. The Virgo South Node has many ways of dealing with the dreams and inside battles of the North Node in Pisces. You should always focus on what your heart desires.

The same North Node in Pisces is one of the most difficult North Node positions because it's making you very energetic and interested in perfection. You are on a mission to bring discipline, no matter where you may be going, at any time. More than this, you're always worrying to not make any mistakes. Your real problems may appear when your expectations and dreams are being met. You have such high ideals that it's impossible for you to meet them with ease.

Feeling pressured, you can be anxious all the time. Because of this, you can end up having health problems that are subsiding from your worries. You can get lost in routine and are brilliant at micromanaging, meaning you can become obsessive about every little thing. Because you only played by the rules in past lives or when young, you can have the opportunity to just relax in mundane activities and to follow what your heart wants. No matter what you may be longing for, you just need to let your guard down and to look at the world from the highest peaks.

It's possible that in your past, you were the one always looking to do what's right. You could have done any job, from healing to crafting, meaning you were surely expected to act in a precise manner, very close to perfection. You are looking to be higher than the sum of your all. This placement is perfect for this Node because Fishes are transcendental and this Node is about overcoming limits and evolving.

You have a need to find your spiritual side. It's like you are from beyond this world, not to mention you are devoted and possess a very rich imagination that you should embrace with all of your soul. If you want to do all this, you need to let go of all the negative behaviors you're practicing and that are holding you back.

Having the South Node in the sign of Virgo, this balance is what's keeping you comfortable and organized. You seem to be naturally disciplined, not to mention you are humble and can be extremely efficient, especially when assessing what's going on in your life. However, the talents you have inside you can effortlessly have you being mistaken when you're not balanced with your life. In this situation, you're becoming a tired workaholic who feels like no one and nothing is good enough for you, not even your own person.

You can make mistakes when being too harsh with yourself, not to mention you can direct this towards others too. Even when not expressing your unhappiness, you may still judge in the background. Your judgmental ways are all about the fact that the South Node is showing what you have brought with you from your life before this one. South Node Virgos were most likely servants for others during this mentioned time period. They were focused on what they were supposed to do, one way or another. More than this, they could have obsessed over work and had no idea when the time was passing while they were investing all of their efforts in something.

During this lifetime, you have your chance to relax, to be not so perfect and to merge what your heart is dictating. You can be softer with yourself and make mistakes, forgetting about details and being as affectionate as you can be, as well as more forgiving. It would be a good idea for you to escape uncomfortable situations in the most graceful manner rather than being dutiful and passing on judgments.

It's not a good idea for you to be confrontational, but you can be daring enough to use your intuition and to take action when you're finding yourself troubled. Over-analyzing is no longer necessary because one part of your soul is looking to trust how life is going, whereas your anxieties should be surrendered to the Divinity.

You need to understand you're being loved. However, you should allow others to criticize you, regardless of how much you're refusing to believe you're not perfect. This way, you can no longer have a problem criticizing yourself, not to mention you can start to criticize your closed ones as well, by focusing on very little detail.

This can have everyone going crazy when around you. You are planning all the time, not to mention you feel very good when things are going as they're supposed to for you. However, if your schemes are not in the right place, you can simply fall apart. It's a big deal to keep the Universe in order.

The lesson your perfectionism needs to learn is that every small issue is part of a big picture. You can be happy within yourself and when surrendering, after which you're no longer struggling or in control. Your anxiety needs to be somehow released. As soon as you realize you can't attain perfection, you can just have a good time and live at a calm pace. This is when you can find your creativity to be something of great value for your comfort and happiness.

For this reason, you have the most creative soul. When immersed in art, no matter if you are creating or appreciating it, you just have to let go of preconceptions and to just go with the flow. That said, you need to not get lost in details. Let your imagination run wild.

Your soul purpose is to exceed the limits of your compassion and imagination. You're supposed to explore the most profound matters of the psyche and how the unconscious mind is manifesting itself.

Your shadow is when you're feeling like life is hard, when you're doubting yourself and worrying about every little detail of life. It can also be when you don't have enough confidence in yourself, when not doing your duty, as well when feeling guilty and when you need to get rid of any shame you may be having.

Strengths: disciplined, charming and spiritual

Challenges: Controlling and anxious

F1 Drivers who have this placement: None

North Node in the First House

With your North Node in Aries or the 1st house, you're here to learn about yourself. This is one of the most liberating north nodes. It's giving you permission and strongly encouraging you to know yourself. Know your needs, know your desires, know what YOU really want. Not what you think you should want, or what would look good to other people, but you have to get in touch with your soul's true desires, apart from any outside influence.

Regularly ask yourself: what kinds of things would I secretly LOVE to do or try if no one could know or judge me? And if success was guaranteed?

With Libra South Node energy, you didn't get to put yourself first in a past life (or early on in this life). This is the South Node energy of a major people-pleaser and someone in a supportive role, always catering to other people and prioritizing them over yourself. You came into this lifetime with those same energetics playing out. You may have grown up in a family with people who weren't the most emotionally healthy. Maybe they had outbursts of anger and it was an unpredictable environment. So you learned to tiptoe around, always taking the temperature of others to feel your way around people and situations. There are many ways your past life could have played out, but in this lifetime, you're no longer going to be able to always prioritize the feelings of other people above your own. No more people pleasing. It will leave you feeling frustrated and stuck. You have to spend time alone with yourself, learn who you truly are, and how easily your behaviors can change depending on who you spend time around. Learn what lights you up in life, and prioritize that. Learn to say no to people or cancel a plan without feeling any guilt or shame. The universe wants you to be more selfish. And I mean selfish in the way that you're not living for others or always anticipating their reactions to your choices.

Your Libra or 7th house South Node comes with gifts. It's ruled by the planet Venus, goddess of love. This makes you a sweetheart. You're a peacemaker, mediator and you can really excel at navigating relationships and social situations. You're highly considerate of other people and their feelings. You see all sides of a situation and help others find compassion for each other. You see that uncomfortable, awkward person at a party who has no one to talk to and you extend yourself to make them feel more comfortable. You are an invaluable person to so many people in your life and you probably don't even realize how much you help people.

While being more intentional about embodying your Aries or 1st house NN, you won't leave these Libra gifts behind. They just get transformed into a healthier expression. For example, in an imbalanced expression of your SN, you can be way too people pleasing. Way too concerned about what others will think of you. When making a decision about your next steps in life, you can consult 100 different people when really all you need to do is turn inward and listen to yourself. Stepping into Aries energy will naturally balance those types of south node behaviors. But you won't lose your diplomatic and considerate spirit. You'll always carry that with you, while you're prioritizing YOU. You're here to be unapologetically yourself. And more bold, pioneering and risk-taking. You'll learn how to say no to things you don't want, even if you think it might inconvenience someone. You'll become an expert boundary-setter, and accept that you're not responsible for everyone else's feelings or experiences. You'll develop a very strong sense of self, and wisely protect your energy. You'll become very in tune with your body and emotions, and prioritize them instead of tiptoeing around others'. And you'll start to find that really, everyone benefits when you honor yourself and show up as the real you. Your most fulfilling, healthy, and truly compatible relationships (a Libra SN craving) come naturally when you're being your authentic self.

Libra / 7th House South Node Higher Expression (your gifts and strengths)

- Mediator and peacemaker
- Amazing partner, friend, coworker, boss, etc.
- Able to genuinely apologize when wrong
- Thoughtful, gentle, considerate, literal sweetheart
- Great at partnership and collaboration
- Giving and compromising in relationships
- Great cheerleader for others

Libra / 7th House South Node Lower Expression (things you'll be letting go of)

- People-pleasing, being too nice and passive
- Often seeing yourself through others' eyes
- Frequently sacrificing self for others
- Not in touch with true desires and needs
- Overly concerned with others' opinions and approval
- Valuing peace, harmony and fairness above own needs/wants

North Node in Aries / 1st House (north node embodiment goals)

- Assertive
- Independent (even/especially within relationships)
- Putting yourself first and trusting yourself
- Unapologetic and fierce
- Not controlled by fear
- In touch with anger and your inner warrior
- Willing to disappoint others or risk disapproval in living your truth

Ascendant in Capricorn 29° (1st House)

Your first house is the area of self identity. The ascendant is a symbol of how you act in life. It is the image of the personality as seen by others, and the attitude that you have towards life.

You can't stand chaos. You're grave, dependable, motivated to succeed, composed and resourceful. Loving to compete and having many ambitions, you prefer working in an organized environment rather than having to deal with money or stressing about finances.

You respect people with authority and have a strong ethic. It's possible for you to end up suffering from disillusionment, so learning to relax is something you should definitely do. You also should put your talents to use because you can really make a difference in the world.

One of the biggest challenges you may encounter is knowing your vocation and becoming larger than life itself because you can get really lost in material desires. Very good as a student, you probably liked to learn and to plan for the future. When it comes to your profession, you are always after the salary and the type of work that offers as much independence as possible.

You insist on doing things the right way because you like perfection and have a highly developed sense of responsibility. However, your efforts need to be appreciated or you may get very upset. Grave and smart, you might feel restrained because you really can't express your feelings and ideas as easily as others. You judge yourself too harshly, thinking that your behavior was probably inappropriate and that you should have done things differently.

Because you don't express yourself, you probably often feel trapped inside your own mind. It can feel like your entire life will be a succession of responsibilities and duties. Thinking life is not meant to be easy, you would never say that it isn't fair, though. And this can be seen in everything you do because you are almost intolerant with those who don't think before acting or who just let things happen in their life.

You are authoritative and like to organize, but you'll never see you talking too much or gossiping. People always think of you as the strong person who keeps things to herself. Quite the workaholic, you love to invest time and effort in your job, even if you're sometimes moaning about it. You move slowly but steadily because you wouldn't want to make a mistake by rushing.

You will give your best to attain perfection in everything that you're doing. It seems easy for you to succeed at any business because you are powerful, persevering and know your goals very well. Your determination is the first thing you use to overcome any fear that you may have.

You have a quiet ambition and prefer to climb the social ladder carefully, seeming like you have invented determination. You are reliable and strong. Your sense of humor can be mistaken for cynicism and sarcasm.

You are ambitious, practical, and have a seriousness about you that is unmistakable. The driving force behind this ambition is typically hidden feelings of insecurity or low self-esteem. Life isn't easy with this placement. You are careful to do what other people expect of you. You might have felt like, as a child, you looked after yourself, and felt the need to be the structured, dependable, and responsible member of the family. You put yourself under enormous pressure to perform. The good news: you tend to age backwards AND loosen up as you age.

Even when joking around, it's of the deadpan variety. You project competence. You're very image-conscious – you want to appear successful, and you generally succeed!

You come across to others as hard-working, competent, and dependable. What others may not see under that cool, even suave, exterior, is an inner struggle: you often ask yourself, "Am I doing enough?", "Do I deserve all of this?", "How can I make things better?" You worry a lot about the future. If success seemed to have come easy to you, it hasn't. You just made it look that way with a patient, hard-working, driven personality. Your quiet air of success is often a result of conscious effort.

You benefit from seeking to share your gift with the world!

Strengths: Focused, resourceful and efficient

Weaknesses: Thoughtless, moody and self-centered

Perfect Partner: Someone who is more realistic than romantic

Life Lesson: Offering more attention to family

Midheaven in Scorpio 17°

Symbolically, the midheaven represents your individuality. It has a strong connection to your public life, career, and aspirations.

Symbolically, the midheaven represents your individuality. It has a strong connection to your public life, career, and aspirations.

Scorpio midheaven can mean you are good at exposing the truth. You bring light to the darkness and love to find resolve in every aspect of life. You are likely good at research and a natural investigator. You have the uncanny ability to read people. You can tell immediately when someone is lying. This ability is like a sixth sense that subconsciously reads a person's body language, various personality nuances, voice inflections, and more.

You also have an amazing ability to focus on one thing and hone in on it like a laser beam. You have tenacious staying power for seeing projects/tasks through to the end. You simply can't rest until you bring everything to a satisfactory conclusion.

Your never-give-up attitude brings you great career success. You have a deep-seated passion for your chosen career and quickly rise to the status of expert in your field!

Lilith in Libra

Black Moon Lilith represents darker, deeper natures that may be repressed or buried.

This is one of the more challenging Lilith signs in the natal chart. Libra is the sign of balance and harmony, while Lilith is about the lack of harmony. Needless to say, there is some conflict between them.

You are fascinated by relationships, but for some reason, you are often unsuccessful in this life area. Things start out well, but they come to an end before time. In other cases, you fall in love with people who are for some reason unavailable. It's like there is a heart-shaped hole in your soul. You are hungry for love, but you can't get enough of it, no matter how much someone loves you. There is a tendency to see your shadow side mirrored back by others. You don't trust easily and it is hard to maintain harmony in the long run with this placement. You pay a lot of attention to what others want from you, even define yourself as the function of your relationships.

This placement suggests deep-seated insecurities related to your self-worth. You are a person who cares a lot about what others think. Liliith in Libra is driven by the desire to appeal to others—you are very sensitive to the influence of your environment. Make sure to choose your friends carefully. Your significant others should also be a beneficial influence in your life, because their opinion matters a lot to you. Bad company can be detrimental for you.

As a child, you witnessed many arguments in your family. Conflicts were frequent and there was little peace. As an adult, you probably dislike conflicts. If there is a lot of drama in your relationship, you want to get out of it.

You want to be close to someone, but are afraid of it too. Unconsciously you often sabotage your relationships. There can be a tendency to project your own insecurities onto others. You settle down only later in life. It is not easy for you to make a final decision and commit to someone.

You like to consider every option. There can be a fear of committing to one thing only, letting all the other options go. You are interested in many things. Liliith here wants to observe things from multiple perspectives. Because of this, people with their Black Moon Liliith in Libra are very good at negotiation. Others like to talk to you.

This placement indicates a wound related to being unlovable. You crave to be accepted and appreciated for who you are, and learning to give the love you want yourself first is one of the most important lessons for you.

Compatibility

There's a lot that can go into compatibility, but to keep it simple (for now!), I like starting with three placements:

- Your Moon placement (this is all about your inner emotions - how you act at home when you're in your most comfortable state)
- Your Mercury placement (how you communicate)
- Your Venus placement (the sign of love and relationships)

Your moon is in ARIES

You are intense, but hold a fierce independence. You want to be able to do your own thing (some might call you impulsive), but you're still extremely dedicated to your causes, your relationships, your interests, to that which feeds you, to that which you love. You care a lot (like, a lot), and you want to do everything right now. Who's coming along for the ride? You'll do it if no one else will. Your life's work? Really seeing things through for the long-haul.

What turns you on: Courage. People who are unafraid to wear their heart on their sleeve, who fearlessly do their own thing, who are unafraid to be the outsider, who are willing to take a risk for love. You're attracted to independence – you're an emotionally independent person, and you require similar qualities in the people (platonic and romantic) you surround yourself with. Ultimately, you need someone (or multiple someones) who can keep up – and who is cool splitting off to do their own thing.

What you want: Inspiration. To rent a car with someone and plan a road trip on the fly.

What you need: Your own space. Books like A Room of One's Own were written for Aries moons. You move quickly and are decisive, but this doesn't mean you want to U-Haul. Far from it.

Biggest Pet Peeve: Passivity. People who don't care.

Most Compatible: Aries, Leo, Sagittarius (Charles Leclerc, Zhou Guanyu, Valtteri Bottas, Yuki Tsunoda)

Meet Your Match: Gemini, Aquarius (Daniel Ricciardo, Mick Schumacher, Kevin Magnussen, Lance Stroll, Sergio Perez)

Take A Risk: Virgo, Scorpio (Max Verstappen, Pierre Gasly)

Your mercury is in ARIES

"I am that I am." No one embodies that more than you! What you think and what you say is who you are, is a direct reflection of your character, your identity, your core beliefs. Your thinking is dynamic, sharp, and innovative. You're the fire-starter: you ignite inspiration wherever you go.

How you process: Talk first, think later. You move quickly. You're decisive. You just know, in your gut, how to approach a situation. Trust your gut. You learn through risk, through adventure, and you're looking for partners who can roll with you.

The communication you crave: Direct honesty. You're a no-bullshit straight shooter and you wish that others would be, too. Sometimes this gets interpreted as being challenging or competitive – warrior-like, if you will – but you just say what you mean and mean what you say. You don't dance around matters of the heart.

Compatibility

On your wavelength: Aries, Leo, Sagittarius (Lewis Hamilton)

Learn something from: Gemini, Libra (Charles Leclerc, Daniel Ricciardo, Zhou Guanyu, Nicholas Latifi)

Be challenged by: Cancer, Capricorn (Fernando Alonso, Sebastian Vettel, Pierre Gasly, Sergio Perez)

Your venus is in ARIES

You come towards your objects of affection like a steam train: full on and straight ahead. You are direct and honest and want the same in return (although if a partner feels too available, you can get bored because you never lose your appetite for the thrill of the chase). People are drawn to you because of your confident and up-front attitude as well as your red-hot sex appeal.

You crave high-energy, passionate relationships. Lots of spontaneous, thrill-seeking adventures and equally electrifying sex, thank you very much. You like to have fun and can be very playful.

Good matches: Venus in Aries, Leo, Sagittarius, Scorpio, or Libra (Charles Leclerc, Lance Stroll, Kevin Magnussen, Carlos Sainz, Lando Norris, Valtteri Bottas)
